

Olingo courses correspond to the Common European Framework of Reference for languages (CEFR): A1, A2, B1 and B2.

We ensure small, homogenous groups to enable maximum practice and interaction. Spanish language students can join in a course that exactly matches to their level through our free level test.

CEFR descriptors

ELEMENTARY LEVEL (A1)

Aimed at beginners. The basics of the language are taught with a practical orientation. Basic grammar is dealt with, as is the necessary vocabulary for day to day life, such as ordering a café, asking for directions, giving personal information etc.

BASIC LEVEL (A2.1)

This level is for those who already possess certain knowledge of the Spanish language but who need to improve their lexicon and learn about grammatical rules to be able to conduct a conversation, to issue an invitation or to refuse it, to pose questions and to answer them, and to give information about the past, etc.

BASIC LEVEL (A2.2)

In this level participants improve their oral and written expression to be up to conduct a conversation without di 2 culties. Grammatical rules and lexicon are learned in this level will allow students to participate in a con 2 dent way in all-day situations, to express emotions and feelings, to compare, to tell stories in the past as well to describe a liking or a discontent, etc.

INTERMEDIATE LEVEL (B1.1)

This level is designed to recess the indicative mode, to enrich the vocabulary and to receive knowledge about socio-cultural aspects about Spain and Latin America which are taught by using di 2 erent texts, discussions and while exchanging information between teacher and student. After absolving this level participants are able to, for example, conduct a conversation about an unknown topic, to le a complaint, to talk spontaneously in an all-day situation and to be up to ask for some explanation in case of disaccord.

INTERMEDIATE LEVEL (B1.2)

The students who want to improve their oral and written expression should join this level. This includes analysis of texts, di 2 erent exercises, various activities intended to review and revise the student, for example, the most di 2 cult tenses, which are aimed at the more di 2 cult conjugations, especially the use of the subjunctive. Besides common mistakes will be correct and ability will be acquired to talk uently about known (or unknown) topics in special elds and the student's eld of interest